

Types of Sentences

A game for 2 players.

You will need:

Coloured counters in two different colours

Types of Sentence Board

Types of Sentence Cards

How to play:

- Cut out the Types of Sentences Cards and place them next to the Types of Sentence Board.
- Player 1 takes one colour of counters and Player 2 takes the other.
- Player 1 takes one of the Types of Sentence Cards and reads the sentence to Player 2.
- Player 2 says what type of sentence it is.
- Player 1 checks the card to see if Player 2 is correct.
- If Player 1 is correct, they use one of their counters to cover one square for that sentence type on the grid.
- Player 2 then takes a card and reads it to Player 1.
- Players continue taking turns.
- The winner is the first to cover four squares in a row, or the player with the most counters when play ends.

Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end in a full stop.

Peter has four sisters.

Questions are sentences that ask something. They usually end with a question mark.

Where does Peter Rabbit live?

Exclamations are sentences that begin with 'what' or 'how'. They are full sentences, include a verb and end with an exclamation mark.

What a beautiful day it is!

Commands are sentences which tell you to do something. They contain imperative verbs (bossy words).

Make sure you take a coat.

★ Challenge Task ★

Write your own statement, question, exclamation and command on a whiteboard.
